THE PREZ SEZ

"The Best Things in Life are Free" and truly one of the best things in life is fellowship. This was certainly apparent at our 1968 Southeastern District Meeting in Louisville this past weekend where members met new friends and renewed old acquaintances. We as members of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter certainly had a great deal to be proud of. Our very own Jean Fulkerson, Southeastern District Vice President, presided over the meetings and conducted workshops. Our chapter scrapbook and bulletin were entered in competition with other chapter's scrapbooks and bulletins. Our bulletin received an honorable mention, which was the first recognition ever given to our bulletin. We are indeed proud of our bulletin chairman, Pat Potter, and her committee for the work that they have devoted to our bulletin. Last but not least we had 13 members from our chapter represented at this meeting.

Our 1968 Southeastern District meeting is now a past event and it will not soon be forgotten. We do, however, have many important future events coming up. March 17 is our Spring Hand of Friendship Tea date. Iva Miller, chairman, and her committee are working extremely hard to make this a successful event. However, we as members must contribute our share. Just what is our share? Well, we can offer to bring our prospective members to the tea; we can talk to the prospective members about ABWA and inform them of the aims and purposes of our association; we can socialize and make them feel they are welcome guests. Don't forget the time is 2:30 p.m. and the address is 906 Richland Drive!

The Executive Board will meet, Tuesday, March 19, at Sue Short's.

Our dinner meeting will be March 26 at Holiday Inn. Mr. Weldon Warnock, minister of the West End Church of Christ, will be our guest speaker. Judy Faught and Lucille Walton will be hostesses and Pat Potter will be Vocational Speaker.

One of the long awaited events of the year is rapidly approaching, Boss Night. If your boss has never attended Boss Night, please make a special effort to bring him this year. Pat Potter is chairman for the event and Joyce Lewis is co-chairman.

If your name appears in the following list YOU are to call Lucille at 843-8979 if you can not make the dinner meeting.

Ann Bays	Marilann Melton	Mildred Brite
Nora Bowie	Iva Miller	Orpha Eleson
Judy Faught	Pat Potter	Carol Graham
Marie Flora	Joann Rudolph	Genieveve Savag
Jean Fulkerson	Sue Short	Florence Perkin
Ruby Gray	Gladys Walker	Mary Lou Miller
Estelle Holloway	Alleyne Wilson	Gladys Sisk
Joyce Lewis	Brenda Williams

GO FORTH -

EDUCATE

We shall go Forth with one purpose in mind "Educate in 68". It was evident throughout the Southeastern District Meeting in Louisville that this is our goal EDUCATION.

Those of you who attended had an opportunity to see the National Staff in action. To view the leadership of chapters working toward higher achievements; not only to visualize other chapter Scrapbooks and Bulletins but observe them.

The Symposium on "Importance of Communication" and Workshops on Membership, Leadership and Educational Opportunities opened the door for each of you. Sure you gained much knowledge and now it depends upon YOU and how applied what the results will be for Kentucky Colonel Chapter in the future.

Let's ALL make an EXTRA EFFORT to attend the National Convention at Jacksonville, Florida in October. Registration is limited but you can register NOW. See our Prez, Brenda.

A CHALLENGE to you is "GO FORTH" and "EDUCATE"

SPOTLIGHTING

BAYS

We in the Kentucky Colonel Chapter are privileged to have ANNELIESE HEIDELBERGER BAYS as a member. Anneliese was born February 2, 1927 in Essen, Germany, the only child of adoptive parents, Franz and Hedwig Heidelberger and lived in Castrop-Rauxel, a small town of 80,00 people in the Rhur Valley. Ann attended grammar school four years, high school seven years and two years of Business College in Dortmund. In 1944 she went to work for the famous scientist, Wernher von Braun in Berlin, they were bombed out and evacuated four times and ended up in Bavaria where taken prisoner. In September of 1945 she started to work as a receptionist for an Army Receiving Hospital. In 1947 she began work for the U.S. Headquarter Denouement Court in Rosenheim as an interpreter for the investigator. 1950 found Ann in Nuernberg working for the EES (European Exchange System) as a secretary in the supply section. She says the work was very interesting and the offices were in the Palace of Justice where all the German War Criminals were tried.

On January 24, 1955 Ann arrived, an immigrant, to New York. On January 28 she started to work for Reynolds Metals Co, in Louisville, Kentucky as an order typist, a few months later became secretary to the purchasing agent. She met and married her

JOYCE
LEWIS

The Citizenship Award of the Bowling Green Office of the Western Kentucky Gas Company went to one of its most outstanding employees and one of Kentucky Colonel Chapters Charter members, JOYCE LEWIS. Joyce was born March 9, 1936, in Lumberton, North Carolina, the oldest of five children for Mr. and Mrs. Robert Lee Emannel, who now reside at St. Pauls, North Carolina. Joyce attended Piney Grove Elementary School and Magnolia High School in Lumberton. In High School she was a member of the Future Home Makers of America and attended a state meeting in Raleigh, North Carolina, the state Capital. She was the Sixth Grade winner of a Spelling Contest and was second Honor Graduate from her high school and voted the most likely to succeed. She attended Appalichan State Teachers College, Bone, North Carolina for one year and then came to Bowling Green where she attended Bowling Green Business University for two years. Joyce remained in Bowling Green, because it was here she met and married Gerald Lewis, a Barber and co-owner of Sparks Barber Shop. They reside at 1660 Magnolia Avenue. Joyce has been a PERFECT ATTENDANCE member since the Chapter was Chartered in 1963 and held the following offices: Vice President 1965-66, Education Projects Chairman, Scrapbook Chairman two years, Publicity Chairman one year and presently 1967-68.

boys, ages 11, 9, 7, 4. Mr. Bays is an attorney and Ann works in his office using her German Shorthand to take dictation and depositions.

Ann is a member of the Community Greeters and President of the Welcome Wagon. Ann has two years Perfect Attendance in ABWA and has served as Bloodmobile Chariman twice, Corresponding Secretary, Hostess for the Bridge Tournament, and presently Social Chairman.

Ann and her family attend the First Christian Church. Her hobbies are Bowling and she is a winner, Reading and meedlework. Ann is a swell Hostess and opens her home to many activities and we all love to go there for parties and social events.

Ann holds the Deutsches Verdienstkreuz (Medal for Heroism) which was given to her during the war for saving the life of another.

The joy of receiving the RIBBON FOR HONORABLE MENTION FOR THE COLONELETTE was one of the greatest in my life. It was so interesting to view the other Bulletins and get new ideas for the COLONELETTE. A GREAT BIG THANKS goes to JOYCE LEWIS who has help me so vey much with out her I could not have gotten it out many times. And to each of you who have contributed so gladly a BIG THANK YOU. This is just a start lets all work for the Blue Ribbon next year.

Pat Potter,
Bulletin Chairman

The Southeastern District Meeting of the American Business Women's Association is now history and we all have memories of it. As your representative, I wish there were a way that I could relate every happening of this weekend to each of you who were unable to attend. From the starting gate to the finish line, it was a winner!

We arrived Friday in Louisville, registered at the hotel and for the meeting. The reception for all members was held in the Terrace Room of the hotel. Getting an early start Saturday morning we attended the Symposium where Jean Fulkrerson, our S.E. D.V. P. presided. Following the symposium, which is always informative and it gives members a chance to ask questions and receive answers from the National Staff, Florence Barrett, Lola Mulloy, Bill Blair are the trio to call upon whenever you have any questions. Following the symposium we attended a lovely luncheon and fashion show in the Flay Room of the hotel. The fashion show was presented by My Dear Watson and featured all the latest styles. Saturday afternoon was a free period if you had decided by this time not to take the tour of Louisville. Saturday evening is one of the highlights of the district meeting. It began with a social hour with a receiving line of all the national officers, past national officers, national headquarters staff, which included Mr. and Mrs. Hilary A. Bufton, Jr. Following this was an exquisite Banquet, a formal event carrying out the Kentucky Theme. Mr. Jim Lucas, TV and night club star, was the entertainer. Mr. "Preach" Edwardson was the guest speaker, his topic was the "Vanishing American".

Sunday morning after church services at 7:15 the on Educational Opportunities, Leadership Opportunities and Membership Opportunities. Jean Fulkerson, Bill Blair, Florence Barrett, and Lola Mulloy conducted the workshops.

Following the workshops was a brunch which concluded the Meeting. At the brunch chapter scrapbooks and bulletins were recognized and the awards presented to the Chapters. For both the scrapbooks and the bulletins there were 8 honorable mentions and 2 winners to go to the National. We all turned then to go our separate ways and felt that it had been well worth the time and effort to attend and began to think of packing our bags for Jacksonville.

ABWA PARTY LINE

Well, it seems that our President and a few of our members, namely Iva, Estelle, and ??? got in the wrong room (REST ROOM) over the week-end. From now on I guess we'll need a guide who can read!

Some of the girls shopped on Saturday but the rain and tired feet were not the most pleasant.

The men who accompanied their wives were a real asset to the week-end. We won't tell what Mr. Perkins did but we all know he had a good time with 10 women on Friday Evening.

The FIRST TIMERS at the convention had a good time and are all ready to go back.

SOMETHING OF YOURSELF

You simply give to others a bit of yourself ----- a thoughtful act,
a helpful idea,
a word of appreciation,
a lift over a rough spot,
a sense of understanding,
a timely suggestion.

You take something out of your mind, garnished in kindness out of your heart, and put it into another fellow's mind and heart.
